The procedure for submitting applications for the sale of securities by the owners of securities registered in the register of Shareholders of Detsky Mir PJSC:

The application of the owner of securities registered in the register of shareholders of Detsky Mir PJSC for the sale of securities is submitted to the Registrar by mail to the address specified in clause 6.3.2 of this voluntary offer, or by handing over a written document signed by the owner of securities to the address specified in clause 6.3.3 of this voluntary offer and if it is provided for by the rules according to which the Registrar carries out the activities of maintaining the register, also by sending an electronic document, signed with a qualified electronic signature. The specified rules may also provide for the possibility of signing the specified electronic document with a simple or unqualified electronic signature. In this case, an electronic document signed with a simple or unqualified electronic signature is recognized as equivalent to a paper document signed with a handwritten signature.

The owner of securities has the right to withdraw an application for the sale of securities before the expiration of the deadline for accepting this voluntary offer, including in the case of sending an application for the sale of these securities to the person who sent the competing offer provided for in Article 84.5 of the Federal Law "On Joint Stock Companies". In this case, the withdrawal of the application for the sale of securities is carried out in accordance with the procedure provided for in this paragraph of the voluntary offer for filing an application for the sale of securities.

From the date of receipt by the Registrar of the statement of the owner of securities registered in the register of shareholders of Detsky Mir PJSC on the sale of securities and until the date of making an entry on the transfer of rights to the securities being sold to DMFA LLC or until the date of receipt of the withdrawal of such statement, their owner has no right to dispose of these securities, including transfer to pledge them or encumber them in other ways, about which the Registrar makes a record of the establishment of such a restriction on the account on which the owner's rights to securities are taken into account, without the latter's order.

		The procedure for submitting applications for the sale of securities by the owners of securities registered in the register of Shareholders of Detsky Mir PJSC: The statement of the owner of securities not registered in the register of shareholders of Detsky Mir PJSC on the sale of securities or the withdrawal of such a statement is sent by giving appropriate instructions (instructions) to the person who keeps records of his rights to shares of Detsky Mir PJSC. Such indication (instruction) is given in accordance with the rules of the legislation of the Russian Federation on securities. 8.2	Certain taxation issues in accordance with the legislation of the Russian Federation	DMFA JSC, which buys securities from Sellers - individuals who have submitted applications for the sale of securities, is recognized as a tax agent for personal income tax (hereinafter referred to as the "Tax") in respect of said income, except in cases when transactions for the sale of securities of DMFA JSC in the interests of the Seller – an individual is carried out by a broker, a trustee acting in the interests of a shareholder, as well as with the exception of other cases listed in clause 2 of Article 226.1 of the Tax Code of the Russian Federation. When performing the duties of a tax agent for Tax, DMFA JSC calculates, deducts from the income due to the Seller and pays Tax to the budget. The tax base for the Tax (the amount from which the Tax is withheld) is defined as the positive difference between the income from the sale of securities and the actually incurred and documented expenses of the Seller on transactions related to the acquisition and sale of alienated securities.
		These expenses will be taken into account by DMFA JSC when calculating the tax base on the basis of the Seller's application, to which it will be necessary to attach originals or duly certified copies of documents confirming such expenses. In certain cases, an individual Seller may also apply for the application of tax benefits provided for by the Tax Code of the Russian Federation. The tax rate will be applied to the specified tax base of DMFA JSC: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • for individuals recognized as tax residents of Russia – 13% (within the tax base not exceeding 5 million rubles) and 15% (to the part of the tax base exceeding 5 million rubles), • for individuals who are not recognized as tax residents of Russia – 30%, unless a different rate is established by the applicable international tax agreement.

For the correct calculation of the amount of Tax and the application of tax benefits, DMFA JSC recommends that Sellers – individuals provide DMFA JSC through the Registrar with a Questionnaire indicating the country of tax residence, the period of ownership of the alienated securities, the amount of expenses incurred related to the acquisition and sale of the alienated securities, as well as other necessary information. The recommended form of the Questionnaire, comments on its completion, as well as a list of documents recommended for the provision of DMFA JSC for the correct calculation of the amount of Tax, will be published on the website of Detsky Mir PJSC on the Internet at <https://ir.detmir.ru/>.

DMFA JSC will assess the Tax on the basis of the documents and information provided. If the Seller does not submit all documents confirming the expenses incurred by him on securities transactions, as a result of which DMFA JSC withholds Tax in excess, the Seller will have the right to refund the overpaid tax in accordance with the procedure established by tax legislation.
